- 1. Graduates of our Master's program will be able to defend in clear, coherent writing their interpretations of literature with textual evidence based on close reading and the application of a critical methodology or theory as an analytic framework.
- 2. Graduates of our Master's Program will be able to demonstrate that they are conversant with acknowledged scholars, primary and secondary texts, and research tools of a defined scholarly field.
- 3. Each graduate of our Master's Program with a concentration in Creative Writing will