

Bienville to Pontchartrain

June 21, 1710

My Lord:

There has arrived at this port a vessel from Martinique which is returning immediately. It gives me an opportunity to render an account to your Lordship of all that has been happening in this colony since the month of September when I had the honor of writing en I

